

'Honouring the Soul'

40 day sabbatical

Deepening our Encounters with God,
Self, Others and Creation

Our Venue

Santa Casa is a centre for retreats and spirituality where our doors are open to people of all faiths.

Owned by the Sisters of Mercy Santa Casa has been a haven for women, men and children for over 100 years.

Situated less than two hours drive from Melbourne on the Bellarine Peninsula in southern Victoria.

Nearby attractions include: the Bellarine and Geelong regions; the Great Ocean Road to Anglesea, Lorne and Apollo Bay; hiking in the Otways; a ferry across to Sorrento and the Mornington Peninsula.

Cost

$6,350 AUD includes accommodation, meals and elective activities.

Please note travel costs to and from Queenscliff, and expenses for personal excursions on free days are excluded.

To Book

An application form is available from Lizzie Finnerty rsm, Manager santacasa@ismapng.org.au or call 0418 194 261.

Places in this sabbatical are limited to 15 participants.

Closing date for applications is 1st August 2024.

To find out more about Santa Casa, watch this short video.

Play video

Need a break?

Seeking an opportunity for renewal?

This is a sacred time for you to stop, rest, explore, reflect,
be nourished and emerge anew.

Santa Casa Retreat Centre

33-35 Flinders St
Queenscliff Vic 3225
www.santacasa.org.au

14 September
to 26 October
2024

Inviting lay and religious, women and men, who are ministering as Christian servant leaders in education, health, aged care and related pastoral and social work.

Some of our Presenters

Liz Dowling rsm

Peter Saunders

Colleen Leonard sgs

Margie Abbott rsm

Maeve Louise Heaney vdmf

Sally Neaves

Tony Hempenstall cfc

Nicole Rotaru rsm

Paul Spence

We offer a wide range of topics including:

prayer, scripture, spirituality, integral ecology, mystics, cosmology, indigenous spirituality, human and faith development, contemporary justice issues, and more ...

Maeve Louise Heaney vdmf will lead participants in a six-day retreat in mid October.

Weekly spiritual direction is available for participants.

Daily prayer and liturgies will sustain communal living.

We have ensured a balanced timetable of input, personal reflection and free time for excursions and activities such as iconography, yoga, book club and film nights.